Le Journal d'Anne Frank (Analyse approfondie) (French Edition) Fanny Paquet

En 1942, alors que la répression se fait de plus en plus forte, Otto Frank, le père d'Anne, décide d'emmener sa famille et quelques proches se cacher dans une annexe de son entreprise dissimulée par une porte-bibliothèque pivotante. Durant deux ans, ils vivront dans la clandestinité et dans la peur d'être découverts par les SS. Bien décidée à raconter ce qu'elle vit, Anne rédige quotidiennement dans son journal intime, offrant ainsi un témoignage inédit sur les persécutions subies par les Juifs durant la Seconde Guerre mondiale.

Avant de résumer Le Journal, Fanny Paquet s'intéresse à la vie d'Anne Frank et de sa famille. C'est ensuite le contexte historique qui est étudié, avec la montée du nazisme et l'éclatement de la Seconde Guerre mondiale. L'auteure s'intéresse ensuite à la psychologie des différents personnages et aux liens qui les unissent. On découvre ainsi toute la maturation d'Anne qui quitte l'enfance et devient une adolescente. Ses réflexions se tournent de plus en plus vers l'extérieur. C'est désormais la condition des femmes qui l'intéresse, ainsi que la religion et le fait d'appartenir à une communauté. Avant de clore son analyse sur la réception de l'œuvre, Fanny Paquet se penche encore sur l'écriture de la jeune fille marquée, malgré la gravité du sujet évoqué, par l'humour.
