The dangerous birth of a foal, stray hounds rescued in traffic, Margaret-feline queen of the back porch, and a mischievous donkey named Burrito... How do these endearing tales of love and loyalty between humans and animals open a window to see the God of the universe? This book connects personal experience with pets to biblical teaching about animals. Will I see my pet in heaven? Why did God make animals in the first place? Does God care how I look after my animals? Did people have pets in the Bible? How does the Bible's teaching about animals connect to its central message? The central message of the Bible is the Gospel of Jesus Christ! This book shows how our animals fit into God's glorious plan to rescue a perishing world. David J. Brady, a Bible teacher and pastor for more than 25 years, lives with his wife Jennifer and a large "furry family" on Shadowlands Farm in North Carolina. In this book he brings together two passions: love for God and love for animals. He has discovered a fascinating truth. By looking at pets through the lens of Scripture, we can find the greatest treasure ever known, the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
