Andrue and Sy'mone: An Urban Love Affair Olivia Shaw

Have you ever done something in your past that you pray doesn't come back to haunt you in the end? That's the case with former exotic dancer and hustler, Sy'mone Gregory. She has turned her life around, and has a desire for a better life for her family. Sy'mone trades in her G-strings for tambourines and wedding rings, and never looks back. With a new, lucrative career, newfound faith, and a man who loves her, she believes that nothing can go wrong. However, she discovers not every fairytale has a happy ending. Sy'mone falls abruptly from cloud nine when she learns that her husband, Andrue, is not who he says he is, following a freak accident that leaves her daughter clinging to life. Every bit of happiness she worked for slips through her fingers in a single moment. When her faith is tested, and her children's safety is compromised, she vows that—come hell or high water—she will protect them at all costs.
