Il Grande Processo (Italian Edition) Elodia Rossi

“Il poema di Elodia Rossi è un viaggio verso l'anima, l'anima come archetipo della vita.”

(dalla Prefazione di Giorgio Albertazzi)

Reale e immaginario a confronto.

E' la storia di una donna giovane, vittima e colpevole di un passato difficile da sopportare.

All'interno di una Roma mutevole, subisce alcuni presagi che le annunciano l'imminenza di un processo, di cui non conosce né la ragione, né l'accusa, né i tempi.

Ma il processo arriva e la protagonista percepisce l'attimo in cui ha inizio.

Così diventa accusa e difesa di sé stessa, in una continua confusione tra quotidianità e sogni, che le fa perdere la percezione della separazione tra reale e immaginario.

Il grande processo evoca ricordi ed emozioni: amori, ossessioni e tradimenti riemergono e definiscono un percorso articolato e imprevedibile. All'interno di questo calvario, scandito da continui momenti di suspense, lei vive un alternarsi pericoloso di sensi di colpa e desideri d'espiazione, fino al drammatico epilogo.

"Un solo attimo può essere l'eternità.

E l'eternità può essere nulla se non c'è un attimo che le dà significato".

Qualche nota:

In questo lavoro, la scelta dello stile dei caratteri utilizzati ha un preciso significato.

Questa storia, che avrei comunque scritto con la stessa sofferenza che l'ha generata, rappresenta anche una risposta ad un certo tipo di letteratura degli anni '70, i cui contenuti personalmente disapprovo.
