Come rubare un missile cruise e vivere felici (Biblioteca del mistero) (Italian Edition) Umberto Gandini

Un missile cruise, parte di un segretissimo carico di armi atomiche trasportato tra mille precauzioni e scortato da una squadra di militari armati, viene inspiegabilmente trafugato da quella che, in un primo momento, per gli increduli agenti americani non può che essere una pericolosissima nonché geniale organizzazione criminale. I fautori del misterioso furto risulteranno in realtà quattro personaggi a dir poco stravaganti e per niente organizzati, che solo a misfatto avvenuto si rendono conto della natura della refurtiva. Mentre un pappone, una prostituta, un'enorme donna dalla fame compulsiva e un ometto svizzero in cerca della propria strada cercano il modo più sicuro e fruttuoso per vendere un'arma di distruzione di massa al miglior offerente, le sempre più disorientate forze della Nato e della Cia si troveranno a dover rimediare al furto più pericoloso e umiliante della storia.

Un divertente 'romanzaccio', ambientato nella regione altoatesina degli anni Ottanta, ricco di buffi personaggi e inaspettati colpi di scena, ma soprattutto interamente pervaso da un dissacrante umorismo.
