Women in the Arts

This beautifully designed CD-ROM introduces you to the fine art collection from Washington DC's National Museum of Women in the Arts. The Collection contains artwork created by women artists from around the world, from the Renaissance to the 20th century. "Step" inside the museum while in the comfort of your home and learn more about the important contributions women have made to art and society over the past five-hundred years.

This CD-ROM collection of approximately 200 pieces of artwork includes a variety of mediums used to create Abstract, Genre, Landscape, Narrative, Portrait, Still Life and Utilitarian artwork. The program allows you to browse through the artwork at your leisure. "Tour" the Collection alphabetically by artist when using the Index button, or use the Spin feature which randomly selects art from the Collection. Other options such as Zoom or Info allow you to investigate any piece or artist in more detail.
