Virginia. Virginia, 22d Dec. 1797. SIR, In all free countries the prefs ought to be the chief cenforial power, in all cafes of perfect or jmperfect obligation, above the reach and penalties of law. It gives me, as a citizen of the United States, as a lover of order and government, of morality and religion, great complacency to obferve, that nothing of turpitude, whether it be the act of the individual, or the legiflature, whether proximate or remote, efcapes your cenfure. I am led to this opinion more ilrongly than I ever before entertained it, from noticing in your paper of the $of No vember, your ftrictures on the refolutions of the lafl A flemibly in relpect to the property called churchlands or glebes, which have been for ages, by the moft facred laws, fecured to the clergy of our epifcopal church :I perceive too, in a fubfequent Ga zette of this month, you have detected the falfe reafoning they contain, and expofed to contempt the author of fuch a nimfy production. If you think it worthy of attention, you may publifh theenclofed Reprefentation. The defence of our fociety yill fland on arguments limilar to thofe which are herein urged.
