Over the River and Through the Woods Kathryn Anne Dubois

When a sensible, responsible young woman behaves so irrationally as to throw caution to the wind, and then contemplates defying her own father and disregarding her responsibilities, she questions her own character. Even more disturbing, when this sweet, well-behaved daughter impulsively does things with a complete stranger that she has never even fantasized doing with any of her former lovers, she panics. She doesn't understand what could cause such an abrupt and dramatic change in herself. But we do. It's...the Right Man.
