Les Adams teamed with Akhil Reed Amar of Yale Law School, regarded by many as the world's leading authority on the American Bill of Rights. Akhil Amar is the author of many highly acclaimed books and law review articles and frequently contributes articles on current constitutional issues to many national publications including The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Los Angeles Times, as well as American Legion, Slate, and Time magazines. The organization of The Bill of Rights Primer is similar to The Second Amendment Primer. The preface presents a short historical survey of the people, events, decrees, legislation, writings, and cultural milestones, in England and the American colonies, that influenced the Founding Fathers as they drafted the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights. The remaining chapters are a condensation of Amar Akhil's book, The Bill of Rights: Creation and Construction.
