Amazon on me (Italian Edition) Margherita Fiaccavento

Dopo una vita passata a lavorare come manager la dottoressa Matilda Banco, alter ego dell'autrice, si trova disoccupata ed accetta un posto in Amazon come magazziniere in Italia del nord. Una migrazione indotta e forzata dalla crisi economica imperante. Il mondo le cambia intorno e lei, accetta di spingere carrelli pur di avere accesso al primo magazzino aperto da Amazon in Italia. Entrare metaforicamente nella grotta di Babbo Natale diventerà l'unica alternativa alla depressione. Da un lato il gigante della logistica mondiale chiuso nei suoi segreti aziendali e inaccessibile ai media dall'altro una donna curiosa mossa dalla disperazione del momento. I passaggi emotivi principali sono: dalla grande città di Roma alla provincia di Piacenza, dal ruolo di manager a quello da operaia, dal lavoro intellettuale a quello manuale. La manager romana abituata ai palazzi di potere vestirà i panni del magazziniere per cinque mesi e questa storia ne è il racconto. Le vicende di un'intera generazione di lavoratori che hanno perso il lavoro e la fiducia in se stessi lasciando alle donne forti il ruolo delle protagoniste.
