A fast-paced thriller from the author of Sins of a Siren finds a young woman fighting for her life as she struggles to avoid her criminal past.

After running away from home as a teen, seeking to escape her overprotective and heavily religious family, Treda Fuqua is seduced by street life. Drug running, theft, and murder are part of the world she lands in. However, the religious teachings she grew up with are hard to shake off.

Although she ended up in jail, Treda manages to find peace within herself and rediscovers the Bible. She gets paroled, but temptation, bad luck, and threats to her family send her spinning down her former path of destruction. Can Treda navigate the male-dominated criminal underworld?

Following Sins of a Siren, Fatal Intentions grabs readers with a combination of action, thrills, and erotic excitement.
