Journeying through Lent with Mark Greg Weyrauch

A Christ-centered guide to the Gospel of Mark for daily devotion and group study during Lent

Lent is traditionally a time to reflect on the life, death, and resurrection of Christ and on our lives as followers of Christ.

The devotional guide includes forty-six meditations based on a passage from Mark's Gospel with reflection questions and a prayer. For individual reading and meditation each day between Ash Wednesday and Easter, it includes an optional study guide for six weeks of small-group discussion.

Especially for congregations that follow the Revised Common Lectionary, here is a resource for individual and corporate spiritual growth in the Year of Mark affordably priced for group use.

Jennifer Fountain:

As a pupil, I exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make a summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that have reading's soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor wants, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise words say, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this Journeying through Lent with Mark can make you more interested to read.
