Feasting with PUNCH is a delicious experience. In this skillful blend of the humorous, the celebratory and the occasionally regretful, there is something for every Palate. Designer food ('chicken nouvelle cuisine is the same as roast chicken but we get a graphic designer to lay out the veg') and fast food health farms and sandwich bars, delicatessens and supermarkets, publicans and waiters-all are meat and drink to PUNCH'S fee-ranging contributors. With such companions at the table-not to mention a dazzling array of cartoonist-the reader is in for an exceptional treat. As George Melly says in his Foreword: 'Here is a feast without flatulence, a booze-up without brain damage.
