Limerick's Fighting Story 1916-21 - Intro. Ruan O'Donnell (Fighting Stories) The Kerryman

The classic text on the struggle for independence in Limerick. Introduction by Dr. Ruan O'Donnell. Limerick's Fighting Story offers eye witness and first hand accounts of the struggle for independence in Limerick city and county. When the Truce was declared in the War of Independence in July 1921, each of Limerick's brigade areas, west, mid and east had flying columns in the field. While the challenge of city fighting and urban guerrilla tactics were high on the list of concerns for the mid brigade, the east and west flying columns were active raiders and ambush artists. This new edition of the classic Limerick's Fighting Story features stories and reports from every aspect of the conflict in Limerick from the Limerick Heroes of 1916, through the nights of terror and violence in Limerick city as Tans killed residents, to the exploits of the women of Cumman na mBan.
